ECONOMICS | TN TRANSFER PATHWAY

ECONOMICS CONCENTRATION

The Associate of Science (A.S.) and Associate of Arts (A.A.) degrees in Economics at Motlow prepare you for transfer to a university through the Tennessee Transfer Pathway (TTP).

For any career related to finance, an economics degree is a good foundation to build on. Economics examines questions related to resource allocation, incentives, and wealth, among others. Employment of economists is projected to grow 14 percent from 2019 to 2029, much faster than the average for all occupations.

Motlow's Economics degree focuses on the intersection of money, markets, resources, scarcity, and how those factors impact individuals, and societies. It prepares you for careers that require numerical, analytical, and problem-solving skills.

Associate of Science

This pathway is designed for transfer to a bachelor's degree program in economics at any public university in Tennessee.

NOTE: Students who intend to transfer into the Economics Major, Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Degree, in the College of Liberal Arts at Middle Tennessee State University OR the College of Arts at the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga should NOT take the ACCT 1010 Principles of Accounting I and ACCT 1020 Principles of Accounting II sequence. Those students should consult their advisor or the Economics department at the university to which they intend to transfer for guidance on elective choices.
