- Account Resolution Specialist ($27-37k/year)

(Occupational Outlook Handbook)

Finance is strategic—anticipating what happens when money is invested. In today's world economy everybody depends on financial strategies and principles. From small start-ups to large corporations, from corner shops to international supermarket chains, from law firms to insurance companies – they all need finance and are willing to pay top dollar for experts in this field.

As a finance student you will explore all sorts of courses and principles that will help you to:

- Understand that money has a way of making every decision emotional
- Understand the difference between assets (which put money into your pocket) and liabilities (which take money out of your pocket)
- Learn how to save money and have separate budgets for emergencies, children's education, travelling, retirement, etc.
- Learn what to invest in and how to invest
